

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT – 30 March 2017

This table on Corporate Governance Statement sets out the extent to which the group has followed the recommendations of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations – 3rd edition. The Corporate Governance Statement is posted on the group's website (www.kailigroup.com.au) for reference on disclosures.

Principles and Recommendations	Compliance	Comment
1. Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Complies	The group's Corporate Governance Statement includes a Board Charter, which states the specific responsibilities of the Board and management. The Board delegates responsibility for the day to day operations and administration of the group to the executive directors.
1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Complies	The Board has carried out checks in 2016 on each director's character, experience, education, qualifications, criminal record and bankruptcy history. No adverse information has been revealed from the checks on any director. The Board will carry out appropriate checks on each director before he or she is put forward for election.
1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complies	Each Director and member of senior management has a written agreement with the Company setting out the terms of their appointment.
1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Complies	The appointment or removal of the company secretary is made with Board approval and the role and accountability of the company secretary is also approved by the Board.
1.5 A listed entity should:	Complies	The Company has a Diversity Policy that sets measurable objectives. During the

- (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them;
- (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and
- (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either:
 - (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or financial year 2016 there has been no change in objectives and achievements compared to prior year. The Diversity Policy is disclosed on the Company's website www.kailigroup.com.au. The Company is not a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act.
 - (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.

1.6 A listed entity should:

Complies

- (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and
- (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.

The Board undertakes bi-annual self-assessment of its collective performance and the performance of the Chairman. The Chairman undertakes a bi-annual assessment of the performance of individual directors.

A performance evaluation has been undertaken in the financial year 2016 and no action was required.

| (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and | Complies | The Board undertakes bi-annual assessment of its senior executives. |
| (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process. | Complies | For the financial year 2016 the Company has undertaken a performance evaluation. |

2. Structure the Board to Add Value

2.1 The board of a listed entity should:

- | | | |
| (a) have a nomination committee which:

(1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and

(2) is chaired by an independent director,

and disclose:

(3) the charter of the committee;

(4) the members of the committee; and

(5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or | Does not comply | See disclosure under 2.1(b) below. |
| (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively. | Complies | The Board does not have a nomination committee.

The Board consists of 3 persons only: one independent Director (Mr William Kuan replaced by Mr Yutian Bai on 9 November 2016) and two non-independent Directors (Mr Jianzhong Yang and Ms Kaiyuan Yang).

The Chairman in consultation with all the Directors assesses the composition of the Board for balance in skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to recommend any additions and/or | succession plans to the Board and as the Company develops.

2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Complies	The Board has a balanced mix of skills matrix. The Chairman, Mr J Yang is experienced in coal mining technology and business management. Ms K Yang provides the balance in diversity in addition to her abilities for shareholder relationships and general management. Mr W Kuan is a financial executive with corporate governance skills having been involved in listed entities internationally. Mr Y Bai has qualifications in accounting and management and is conversant with corporate governance principles. New directors may be appointed to fill any gaps in the skills matrix as the Company develops.
